

Find the tall metal tower called the Orphan Girl. Your next clue is waiting close to her feet.

Find the Berkshire place where dream homes begin.

Find the old fire house that turned into a home for Butte's memories.

Go to the shop named after how high Butte sits

Search for the spot that celebrates a Bonanza of cool summer memories.

Go to the place that welcomes visitors to Butte and helps people learn what to do around town.

Head to the place where Centana helps people find the right place to live.

Search for the spot that celebrates a Bonanza of cool summer memories.

Find the place that celebrates Butte's old amusement park, where rides once spun and gardens bloomed.

Puzzle Instructions

Collect each puzzle piece as you solve the clue at every stop.

When you have a piece:

- Place it in its correct spot on your puzzle page
- Make sure the pieces fit together to reveal the final image

If you reach a stop and the facility is closed, take a photo in front of the building to confirm your visit before continuing.

Keep solving clues and collecting pieces until your puzzle is complete.

Once your puzzle is complete:

Return to either:

Butte Chamber of Commerce or World Museum of Mining

to check in and complete your adventure.

Bonus Stamp

There are two bonus stamps on the trail. Each one gives guests an extra entry in the end-of-season drawing.

Stop by the place that sells original Butte items.

Find the Butte Chamber and World Museum of Mining at the Farmer's Market!

Want more Butte history?.

Scan here for the

